

Samantha Spielberg Administrative Director

Sam grew up near Worcester, MA. In 2016, she earned a bachelor's degree in Film and Writing from Keene State College. Following graduation, she began working as an Assistant Producer for a local documentarian. In completing their most recent film-- about youth mental illness -- she discovered her drive to be an advocate for individuals with lived experience. Sam joined MPS as an Administrative Assistant, where she can use her skills in a new environment with the shared goal of improving access to mental healthcare.
