

Zachary Lopez Respite Coordinator

Zachary is a military combat veteran, serving from 2007-2013, with a Bachelor's in Forensic Psychology.

Zachary is currently getting his Masters in Cyber Security with a focus on Digital Forensics. Zachary has been working in the mental health field for over four years. He has good social skills and works well under pressure. Zachary takes their time to get to know you and will help you if they possibly can. In his spare time he enjoys playing video games and spending time with his animals and friends. Zachary is a kind hearted individual who wants to help others.